

St. Anne Catholic School Statement of Caution

It is the intention of St. Anne Catholic School to provide any athlete with good instruction, safe equipment, and safe transportation, but we cannot eliminate all risks involved in sports participation. Accident, injury, completely unrelated to any preventable cause, is always possible.

This caution section is designed to provide the school with a degree of protection. It is not designed to deny the rights of an injured athlete. As a condition to participation in these activities, you and your parent(s)/guardian(s) must understand the risks involved in these kinds of activities.

CAUTION: Participation in any athletic activity may involve injury of some type to either yourself or a fellow student athlete. Such injury can include direct physical and possible crippling injury to one's body and the possibility of emotional injury experienced as a result of witnessing or actually inflicting injury to another. The severity of such injury may range from minor to catastrophic injury such as complete paralysis or one's future ability to earn a living, to engage in other business, social and recreational activities, and generally to enjoy life.

Activity injuries can result from the incorrect or correct performance of playing techniques used in tryouts, practices, warm-ups, games, drills, exercise and similar undertakings. Injury can also result from failing to follow game, training, safety or other team rules. Injury can result from the use of transportation provided or arranged by the school to and from games and practices.

Therefore, the purpose of this caution is to aid you in making an informed decision as to whether you or your child should participate in these activities. In addition, the purpose of this caution is to make you aware about and or inquire of coaches, physicians, advisors, or knowledgeable persons about any concern that you might have at any time regarding the safety of participants.

By signing this document, you acknowledge that you have read and understand its contents and warning related to the above stated risks and give permission for your child to participate in interscholastic activities.
